RUN REPORT 2073

Was a good night at Sudden and Not So's place, good run and walk not being too long but long enough to acquire a decent thirst. To all reports, everyone agreed that we went out the gate and turned right and on our merry way. It was also noted that part of Queensland nickel's demise could have been due to the recent renos on Sudden's house but no one was saying anything.

Not So was given the prick of the week shirt and Captain I think took one for Azaria with the erectus (not knowing the full story as was not paying attention). Cuttlefish won the rumbo, Big Wetty the rene pogel and Hercules the white wine. Tool Squeezer and Gash had a down down for their first wedding anniversary but didn't comment about if the jelly bean jar was emptying in a hurry.

Nosh was the good ol ham sangas with a fair turn up leaving no leftovers. Good run overall.

See you all next week

"Cool, only 40 more years to go."

An old man lay sprawled across three entire seats at a concert. When the usher came by and noticed this, he whispered to the old man, "Sorry sir, but you're only allowed one seat."

The old man didn't budge and the usher became more impatient. "Sir, if you don't get up from there I'm going to have to call the manager."

Once again, the old man just muttered and did nothing. The usher marched briskly back up the aisle, and in a moment he returned with the manager. Together the two of them tried repeatedly to move the old dishevelled man, but with no success.

Finally they summoned the police. The officer surveyed the situation briefly then asked, "All right buddy what's your name?"

"Fred," the old man moaned.

"Where you from, Fred?" asked the police officer. With a terrible strain in his voice, and without moving, Fred replied: "The balcony"
