RUN REPORT- 2154

Kirwan Hash arrived at Dammit's abode early as usual to find a backyard decked out in Xmas decorations. A big crowd gathered before the Tarts sent runners and walkers off. The walkers headed up Cambridge Street to Cambridge Park, where we were met by all of Santa's helpers who offered us all Xmas presents which we were told to wear. Some Hashers looked OK in their new attire but, as usual, you can't make Hashers look good no matter what you try. Jelly shots and drinks were consumed while everyone had a laugh.

On-On to the Dalrymple Service Road where most enjoyed a quick dose of snow. Another drink-stop (egg nog, shots and rumballs). On-On again across the road to the Daly Pub. Jugs of numerous flavoured beers were presented. Suzy Wong started a Hash song to the amusement of the Pub Locals. Once the jugs were emptied, we headed back to the trailer. More drinks and nibbles. GM called the Circle and the fill-in JM (Wart) handed out the down downs. Many were had before the GM called free drinks for the night because yours truly (Pully) forgot his wallet. No Prick of the Week or Erectus were to be seen. Raffles were won by many in the form of bon-bons. Circle was over and Nosh was served which consisted of a traditional Xmas dinner (roast chicken and potatoes with mixed veges). Dessert of Christmas Cake with custard followed.

More drinks. Someone????? thought it was a bit cold so decided to warm up the night, however got carried away and flames resulted, only to be put out to the sound of sirens!!!!

The Tarts excelled themselves.
Great Night & Run and Well Done!!!
On-On,
Pulthru & Falcon
