HAPPY BIRTHDAY TOWNSVILLE HASH HOUSE HARRIERS – INAUGRAL RUN (-1) @ ROWES BAY GOLF CLUB ON 29/08/1977

Hash Run 2159 - 28/08/2017

A motley crew of hashers gathered at the abode of Pick-up and Self Abuse. As the day was a relatively warm, much hydration was taken in, in the form of the amber liquid. At 5.58, Self mounted the trailer to announce where each pack would run / walk, only to be told "it's not time yet". Finally, the hour arrived and the pack were sent forth in their respective directions. Walkers to the right, opps, the left and the runners through the park. As usual a trailer pack remained behind to 'guard' the trailer. Finally, the runners came running in all huffing and puffing (sounded like a bunch of wolves trying to blowdown the house – no good, the house is built with bricks?) The circle was called, the hares of Self, Pick-up, Sherlock and a sneaky Blow-Back were called forth to celebrate a welcoming ale. More chargers, some announcements were made. The owner of the P.O.W was called forth to present the famous??? tee-shirt to an unsuspected receiver.

Pully received the tee-shirt for being a 'newly retired' member of the retiree's club. As he was the designated driver, wingman Wart took the fall. The raffle tickets were sold and bought, raffles were won and many punters lost their money to the benefit of the club. Charges relating to Trinity's 2000th run were called and unwelcoming received. El'Dringo was 'iced' for airing his opinion. Nosh was served and duly devoured by the hungry hoard. The 'best G. M' for this year announced the price for alcoholic drinks were dropped, much to the surprise of the pack. This new price was gratefully received. Great run / walk, great nosh and great company.

SWAP, SELL, TRADE HASH STUFF, FIRST MONDAY OF EACH MONTH.

A guy walks into a car shop and says, "I'd like a petrol cap for my KIA." The car mechanic thinks for a few seconds then says, "Ok, that seems like a fair trade."

Q: What do you call a guy with his hand up a Camel's arse? A: An Arab mechanic.

What's the difference between BMWs and Porcupines?

Porcupines carry their pricks on the outside.
