Run 2171 – Clever Punt, Streaka, Ewok

Well, everyone gathered at Briarfield street Mundingburra, the air thick with excitement, the anticipation could be seen on everyone's face while waiting for run no. 2171 to commence. After a short time (2 beers) the horn was blown, so the runners went one erection, sorry, direction, while the wankers, sorry, walkers went the other way. The runners went up down, down & up according to the response at circle while the walkers had a great time sightseeing around the neighbourhood (lower Mundingburra). Some went to the bowls club while others guarded the trailer. Nibbles were served & circle was called, Tonsils passed the Erectus to Eaton, the GM passed the prick of the week to Serenity, Not So said something about liking it black or not liking it black (can't remember). Someone won the raffles. Nosh was served & Streaka, Ewok & Clever Punt put on a great spread. Thank you all for a great night.

On-On

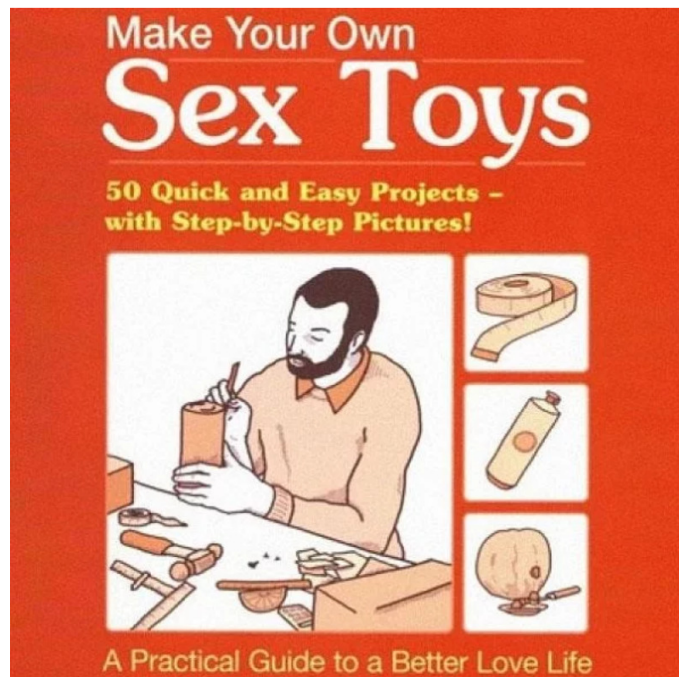

Tool-squeezer

A nun is undressing for a bath and while she's standing naked, there's a knock at the door. The nun calls, "Who is it?"

A voice answers, "A blind salesman."

The nun decides to get a thrill by having the blind man in the room while she's naked, so she lets him in. The man walks in, looks straight at the nun and says, "Uhhhh, well hello there, can I sell you a blind, dearie...?"

How do salespeople traditionally greet each other?
"Hi. Nice to meet you. I'm better than you."

Some literature to lift the 'cultural' level of hash.

A door-to-door vacuum cleaner salesman manages to bull his way into a woman's home in a rural area. "This machine is the best ever" he exclaims, whilst pouring a bag of dirt over the lounge floor. The woman says she's really worried it may not all come off, so the salesman says, "If this machine doesn't remove all the dust completely, I'll lick it off myself." "Do you want ketchup on it?" she says, "we're not connected for electricity yet!"
