RUN REPORT 2177 – GUMBOOT & CLITIS – 1/1/18

Well it was New Year's Day and a rather slovenly and slightly hungover pack had assembled at the abode of Gumboot and Clitus. 6.00 pm on the dot and Clitus called the pack to attention, runners to the left and the walkers to the right, very short run with no shiggy and no hills and a drink stop. They were off like a herd of brown cows up and down the road both finding their way to Golf Links Drive and on into Homo's back gate, where one member had forgotten to duck (Slash) and opened himself up. Here at Homo's a quenching mix of port and lemonade or water was had by all then it was on-on back to home. Back at home and the pack slowly sucked down a few coldies AND THE circle called. Down-down for the hares Clitus and Gumboot, Prick of the week to Pick-up and the erectus to Blowback. Charges were called with Homo and Gaelic, I mean Ray and Ron, being promptly called out for the forever memorable gay Christmas card event and then Gaelic again for trying to outshine the nearly full moon the night before. A few more charges with Clitus and Blowback getting a tun of tun to the point where I couldn't remember due to a tun of tun by the way it makes a better shampoo than beer. Raffles were had with Mother Duck, Ballsy and Big Wetty taking the cookies. Circle closed and then ham, cheese and coleslaw sandwiches consumed by all. The pack had a few more coldies to celebrate the new year and then quickly dispersed. A couple of hanger oners were left in Blowback and Masterbates but by 9.45 were ushered out the front gate on their bikes and off into the darkness. Short but sweet night with quite a few laughs had by all.

On-on and a Happy New Year to all

Clitus

ON THIS DAY:

1815 – Battle of New Orleans (War of 1812); the war had ended on 24th December 1814 but none of the combatants knew.

1835 – The United States national debt is 0 for the first and only time.

1877 – Crazy Horse and his warriors fight their last battle with the United States Cavalry at Wolf Mountain (Montana Territory)

1916 – WW1: ANZAC forces withdraw from the Gallipoli Peninsula after the Ottoman forces successfully defend access to Constantinople.

JOKES:

Adam was the world's first butcher. He was always chasing Eve with his meat waggin'

Eve was the first carpenter. She made Adam's banana stand.

The Sunday school teacher asked the class. "Who went to Mount Olive?" "Popeye!", came the quick reply.

What's the difference between a woman in church and a woman in the bath? One has a soul full of hope.
