RUN REPORT 2182 – CAPTAIN AND TENNILLE
NO RUN REPORT RECEIVED AT TIME OF WRITING THE TRASH – Ed

An enthusiastic hoard of hasher gathered at Captain and Tennille’s abode. Lilliput Hash was extremely well represented as the group seems to be getting larger and larger. Captain mounted the trailer, told the hoard that due to the amount of rain which we received, there was no chalk marks to contend with only a piece of paper with instructions telling us where to go. Anyhow (have a Winfield – a smoking pun), we shuffled, crawled, walked and ran out of the gate to various locations of eastern Townsville. The runners – pack depleted from the previous week (appears someone had taken out several hashers), ran through various suburbs before reaching the Drink Stop. The walkers, walked a huge blocky before cumming to the Drink Stop. A concoction of ‘ginger ale, white wine and lemonade???’ awaited all and sundry. A quick meander home to a tasty morsel. Fluids flowed, circle was called, down-downs were had, raffles were won and lost, El Dringo’s tin dog returned (in a few shapes and sizes.) Nosh of a couple of types of lasagne as produced and consumed. All in all, top night, top run / walk and very good nosh.

On-on
Swamp (Ed)

ON THIS DAY IN HISTORY:

1865 – Henry Highland Garnet become the first African American minister to preach in the House of Representatives, he talks about the end of slavery.

1912 – Last Ch’ing (Manchu), Emperor of China, Husan T’ung, abdicates.

1914 – ‘The Squaw Man’, 1st feature-length film shot in Hollywood, directed by Cecil B. DeMille and Oscar Apfel, is released in the U.S

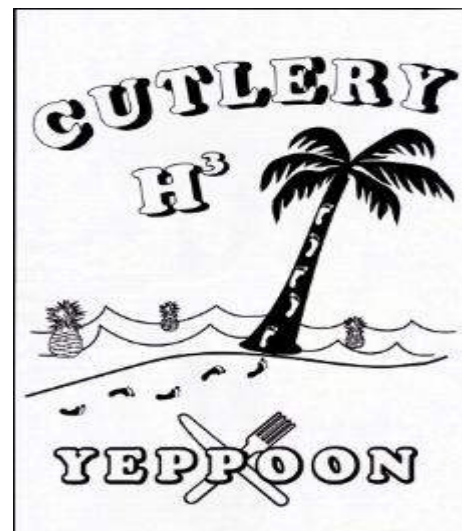

1999 – US President Bill Clinton acquitted by the Senate in his impeachment trial.

JOKES

Custer’s last words at the Battle of Little Big Horn: “I’ll never understand these dam Indians, just a few moments ago, they were singing and dancing.”

Maureen was surprised to find that she was pregnant. “When did you have your last check up?” asked the doctor. “Never! insisted Maureen. An Italian, a Frenchman, and a Yank, but never a Czech”

Did you hear about the transsexual donkey? It had a hee in the morning and a haw at night.
