RUN REPORT – 2200 - MISMANAGEMENT

Friday Meet and Greet was held at the Jubilee Bowls Club.

A gathering of hashers from places near and far attending. Nostradamarse Bamaga H3 to Alky from Emerald to Delicious and Co from Mackay and Rocky and others whom I can't remember. Sorry to those hashers. A good contingent of the Townsville H3 also attending and supporting both the Bowls club and the hash club – Many thanks to all. The cool amber beverage and not so amber beverage flowed from about 7.00PM to the wee hours of the night / morning. Pre-nosh of Swamp's balls, bickies, and chips were being quickly devoured just as the call of 'nosh is on' was heard. There were a large variety of pizzas varying from vegetarian to 'hot' to somewhere in-between.

Saturday and Sunday – Townsville Gun Club

A small contingent who had the fore-thought to 'erect' their camp the day before were at the venue at the 'crack of dawn' / or soon after. Hashers began arriving and choosing their 'camp sites'; admiring the 'pool room' wall decorations; attaching banners and signs; and complaining that the 'trailer' wasn't available for the free piss. Trailer turned up, much to the gratitude of the pack who were ready to "blood-let" fellow hashers to get a drink. With the trailer positioned, locks removed, the 'piss' flowed and much rejoicing ensued. Kookaburra and Goanna arrived and promptly began to cook up a scrumptious midday luncheon, which was gluttonously devoured by the hungry hoard. Serenity mounted the trailer and greeted all and sundry, thanked all the hashers who had travelled from far and wide. Coyote Ugly then was called to mount the trailer (trailer was getting a good work out), runners that way and walkers this way or follow the respective hares. The walkers trudged through the mango orchard following trail. The trails meandered through the vegetation where the runners and the walkers crossed paths. First drink-stop was on the banks of 'Killymoon Creek' where Swamp's balls were placed on a platter together with Tart Ann's haggis and washed down with some fine whiskey and butter-scotch schnapps. Couple of 'hash puppies' enjoyed the haggis more than most of the hashers. Photos were taken of the setting (slow flowing creek, hashers enjoying a cool beverage and food). Blow-Back called on-on and remaindered the hashers that there was much chonky-apple on the trail, be aware. On-on to the second D/S, in a dried river bed, more nosh and much more piss where all 'enjoyed the serenity'. On-on home to more piss and nosh. Circle called, various down-downs to recipients, where some "enjoyed the icy chairs – not". Extratit and Nostradamarse led the 'circle singalong' with various hash songs. Delicious reminded everyone that the year of hash celebration runs has not yet finished with some runs still to cum.

Hashers attired themselves in the theme of the weekend, Scottish and everything Scottish. More nosh and even more piss followed.

Hash Acts were called upon and performed entertaining the pack. The 'Harriett ukes', performed several times. 'Hash Acts' finished and the "hard" partying began until the 'weeeee' hours of the morn where Wart and Blow-Back guarding the trailer until near dawn.

Towers of fire-wood was constructed around the fires; Harriets just wanted to have fun; many congregated around the fire to keep warm; Serenity room was in full swing; Shatter mentioned that there was a mobile serenity room in his camper; Tina, Daisy and one other hash puppy scrounged as much nosh as they could muster without their owner's consent; the trailer ran out of 'red wine'; reports of semi naked dancing was heard; the 'midnight' nuddy run was held followed by a pizza supper; Blow-Back and Shocker managed to dance the 'time warp' without striking heads or injuring each other Sunday breakfast of bacon, eggs and fritz was consumed with great gusto and wash down with a beer / soft drink / water / coffee (hair-of-the-dog and NOT hash dog hairs).

Venue cleaned and returned to some semblance of order before all hashers departed to their various destinations.

A BIG THANK YOU to all the committee and other helpers for arranging and organising the celebration run. Wishing everyone a SAFE return to their home towns.

A big thank-you to Kookaburra and Goanna for their incredible nosh.

Great weekend; great venue; great company and even great nosh.

On-On Swamp.

PS – many things went straight to the pool room
