RUN REPORT – 2206 Pull-Through & Falcon

Well the crowd started to roll in from all around the streets of lovely Townsville.

The setting was just marvellous at the golf course with a hazy full red sun setting on the horizon.

The trailer was primed with refreshments.

The run kicked off at 5.59 pm as pully wanted to get things going.

The runners pack consisted of only 6 runners, that being two weeks in a row maybe a pattern is forming here.

The walkers went one way and the trailer "athletes" stayed and did their usual exercises.

All of the Hash "team" IE: runners and walkers arrived back home unscathed in what can only be described as an enjoyable run through undulating and ovulating streets of upper Kalinda Chase.

The nibbles and bites were nourished.

The circle was called and GM called out the usual outlaws in crime and upcoming events, news items etc..etc..bla..bla.

PINKBITS was welcomed back with her friend BREXIT JOHN. TOOLSQUEZER's dad, LES made his annual visit to sunny Townsville.

POW went from MWAA to CLITIS for winning a motza of money and not shouting the circle.

Can't remember who CATBLEW gave the erectus to. (Hot 4 Male – ed)

Nosh was delectable being hot pea and ham soup and Sausage rolls, went down a treat on a cold night. Drinks flowed freely after nosh and then SCRIBE went home so can't tell you what happened after that.

A great night that will add to the lovely memories everyone has as TVH3 moves forward in history.
ON-ON AND GIDYUP!!!! COWBOY

ON THIS DAY:

1827 – First swimming pool opens in Boston, Massachusetts

1829 – American, William Austin Burt, patents the 'typographer' (typewriter)

1872 – African/American inventor Elijah McCoy is granted a patent for steam-engine lubricators.

1888 – John Boyd Dunlop applies to patent the 'pneumatic tyre'.

1904 – The humble 'ice cream cone' is created during the St. Louis World Fair, the first cone reputedly by Charles E. Menches.

JOKES:

Dwarves are banned from joining nudist colonies – they are always poking their noses into other peoples' affairs.

The old couple had fallen in love at the retirement village. Eventually, he put the hard word on her. "Oh, yes!" she said, as she hurriedly started to undress. "But I must tell you that I have acute angina." "Well, that's good because you're got lousy tits," He replied.

A pompous Englishman arrived to pick up his Australian visitor in a Rolls Royce. The Australian sat next to him in the front seat. "I suppose, being a Colonial, you're never ridden in a Rolls Royce?", said the puffed-up pom. "Sure have", replied the Australian, "but never in the front!"

Vic went to the doctor. His hands were trembling. He thought he had Parkinson's Disease. The doctor checked him out and asked, "Do you drink much?" "No", said Vic, I spill most of it".
