RUN REPORT – 2207 Cuttle Fish and Eaton

The run started from Eaton's abode (trees and shrubs slightly pruned from the last run held at her place). It was noted that the kayak hanging in the carport above the hash trailer was totally laden with beer cans (from the previous run?) - not used for a while, Eaton?

Off we proceeded on the run/walk (well almost all of us) around the streets of Pimlico and on to a drink stop in Townsend Street. Port and lemonade quenched our thirsts (lemonade must have been expensive this week). The trail was well marked for the runners with Cuttle Fish tying gyprock sticks together to make huge double arrows on the road. The walkers followed the arrows in the opposite direction to the runners around the streets. On home for drinks, nibbles and conversation.

Circle was called by the GM and down downs were had by Hares, visitors, chargers and raffle winners. Erectus and Prick of the Week, PTO. Circle completed and on to Nosh. Soups in many pots (pumpkin, tomato, chicken and cauliflower) and bread rolls and bread to dip.

More drinks and conversation (bullshit by this time of the night). Daisy called last drinks and the trailer was gone.

Gr8 run, food and company.
