RUN REOPRT 2315

A supposedly Blue Moon - Full Moon emanated after we returned from a walk through Castletown & headed for the hills, whilst the Full Mooner's headed for the Cen Ten & free piss (pricks). Entering Plant St (appropriately named) the Frangipani's were in bloom, & so BJ began the collecting of said native plants & soon the Harriettes joined in on the bandwagon & the West End Cemetery was in full Bloom, (not a Daisy in site).

B&D was @ the Pearly Gates with a refreshing Concoction containing Pineapple juice. Walkers headed for home when runners descended from the hill. Down Downs ensued with Jason giving the Erectus to his friendly neighbour Ewok for getting him into this predicament in the first place.

Prick of the Week didn't appear so we raffled up & into some Great Nosh.

Another great night thanks to Betty & Black & Decker

Dear Dr. Phil,

When I retired, I could hardly wait to spend time enjoying my favourite pastime - fishing.

I bought my own little fishing boat and tried to get my wife to join me, but she just never liked fishing.

Finally, one day down at the Bait & Tackle Shop, I got to talking to Sam, the shop owner who, it turned out, loves fishing as much as I do. We quickly became "fishin' buddies."

As I said, the wife doesn't care about fishing; she not only refuses to join us, but she always complains that I spend too much time out on the lake.

A few weeks ago, Sam and I had the best fishing trip ever.

Not only did I catch the most beautiful fish you've ever seen, but only a few minutes later Sam must have caught its twin brother!

So, I took a picture of Sam holding up the two nice fish that we caught and showed the picture to my wife, hoping that maybe she'd get interested.

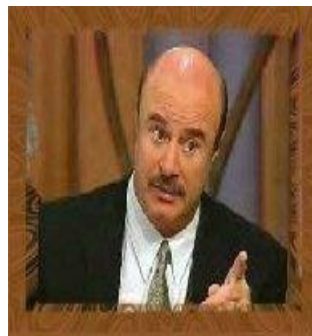

Instead, she says she doesn't want me to go fishing at all anymore!

And she wants me to sell the boat! I think she just doesn't like to see me enjoying myself.

What would you do? Continue my hobby, or quit fishing and sell the boat as she insists?

Thanks, Ron

P.S. Enclosed below is a picture of Sam with the two fish we caught.

Dear Ron,

Get rid of that narrow-minded wife. Those are two very nice fish!

Dr. Phil
