RUN REPORT 2342

(with apologies to Banjo Patterson)

T'was coolish in the suburbs, but the word had got around

That CLITUS and GUMBOOT's curries would be served.

So hashers came from far and near, to increase their appetites

With a walk or run, or sitting, so I've heard.

The run was set with arrows made from cooking flour and chalk

Well marked, is was, if arrows you could see.

And others, not those sitting, set out on a walk,

But can't comment much, cos I was running you see.

The trail was set quite cunning, being mostly off the road

Thank god BnD's little torch was lit.

But the highlight of the evening, was a most athletic act

IN BREAD's leap of faith, landing knee deep in some shit.

Some charges in the circle, followed by some beer FRESH FANNY, now a virgin once again,

Has a second large ERECTUS, to pass the time away.

No Prick this week, KUNG POO absent once again.

The raffles were amazing with essentials for the pour.

WART was so delighted with his winnings.

TYSON hid all the black tickets, so no prizes for the scribe

But SERENITY, the winner, once more grinning.

Nosh was up to standard, the curries were sublime.

Great effort by the Hares to feed the masses.

I worry though for COPIT, for with such a meal as this,

BLOWBACK will no doubt be rife with awful gases.

Great run

ON ON

FILTHY

A Letter From a Redneck Mother to her Daughter

Dear child:

I am writing this slow because I know that you can't read fast. We don't live where we did when you left home.

Your dad read in the paper that most accidents happen within 20 miles from your home so we moved. I won't be able to send you the address, as the last family that lived here took the house numbers when they left so that they wouldn't have to change their address.

This place is real nice. It even has a washing machine. I'm not sure it works too well though. Last week I put a load in, pulled the chain, and haven't seen them since.

The weather isn't too bad here, it only rained twice last week. The first time it rained for three days and the second time for four days.

The coat you wanted me to send you, your Uncle Steve said it would be a little too heavy to send in the mail with the buttons on, so we cut them off and put them in the pockets.

We got another bill from the funeral home. They said if we don't make the last payment on Grandma's grave, up she comes.

John locked his keys in the car yesterday. We were worried because it took him two hours to get me and Shelby out.

Your sister had a baby this morning but I haven't found out what it is yet, so I don't know if you're an aunt or an uncle. If the baby is a girl your sister is going to name it after me; She's going to call it Mom.

Uncle Pete fell in a whiskey vat last week. Some man tried to pull him out but he fought them off and drowned. We had him cremated and he burned for three days.

Three of your friends went off a bridge in a pick-up truck. Ralph was driving. He rolled down the window and swam to safety. Your two friends were in the back. They drowned because they couldn't get the tailgate down.

There isn't much more news at this time. Nothing much has happened.

Love,

Mom

PS - I was going to send you some money but the envelope was already sealed.
