RUN REPORT 2354

DDT & Mystery assistant – 16th August 2021

We put on our hiking boots and headed for the mountainous county of the 'Upper Heights of Wulguru'. Fond stomping ground of many ancient Townsville tribes, namely Reefer and his go karting mates. There we found DDT and lovely mystery assistant Sally, ensconced in a hill side villa complete with swimming pool (no room for a pony).

All Hashers arrived safely.... although most were out of breath and favouring various age onset infirmities, having had to walk up the presupus hill to DDT's front door.

Walkers headed off under the guidance of trainee trail master Azaria while the runners took their chances in the wilds of Wulguru. Azaria lead the pack around the back of the Sturt Hotel looking for the drink stop with no luck. Runners all seemed to return in one piece (sorry forgot what the report on the run was.....)

Circle was rather romantic around the pool with glittering lights of Townsville and sounds of police sirens in the distance..... The 'Prick of the week' was given by Rooster to Mother Duck for being Japanese?!? And therefore closest representative of the Olympics?!? 'Erectus' was missing in action. Amongst other things, Sudden Insane proved he was Not So insane as he managed to stay married to her for 50 years.

As people marvelled at the tenacity of this timeline Blow Back let on it was his and Cop It's 41st wedding anniversary.... Reluctant Safety officer Shatter, & RamRooter were called out for not advising Hashers of the bloody great cliff upon which the house and swimming pool was bolted onto. Wart was made to face his fear of falling again by getting up on the ladder to pick out winning raffle tickets – who needs friends when you have Hashers...

Sad news about Tootie Fruity from Cairns Hash passing away.

Sally turned out to be related - oh sorry- having dated Inn-bread during their childhood in Tasmania. But we forgave her, as she did a great spread of food and DDT put $100 on the trailer. We all enjoyed a lovely meal looking out over the roof tops.

Food was plentiful and tasty. Another successful run, good night, On On.

A man was hunting when a gust of wind blew, the gun fell over & discharged, shooting him in the genitals.

Several hours later, lying in a hospital bed, he was approached by his doctor. "Well, sir, I have some good news & some bad news.

The good news is that you are going to be OK.

The damage was local to your groin, there was very little internal damage, and we were able to remove all of the buckshot."

"What's the bad news?" asked the hunter.

"The bad news is that there was some pretty extensive buckshot damage done to your willy which left quite a few holes in it. I'm going to have to refer you to my sister."

"Well, I guess that isn't too bad," the hunter replied.

"Is your sister a plastic surgeon?"

"Not exactly", answered the doctor.....

"She's a flute player in the Boston Symphony Orchestra. She's going to teach you where to put your fingers so you don't piss in your eye.
