Run 2368

As the sun slowly sets in the foothills of Hervey Range and the fruit bats depart Gleeson Park the Hashers descended onto Warland St in Kirwan to test their grit and stamina at HOT BOX and BANG COCK's humble abode.

The night started with a disclaimer from BANGOK that he had nothing to do with the run and had left it in the capable hands of HOT BOX and INN BREAD he was just the kitchen bitch.

Come 6 o'clock and out the gate we go both runners and walkers to the Right, both packs had reasonable runners and the weather (Hot and Humid) ensured a eager thirst would be built.

The Runners made their way around the Willows and every now and then we caught sight of the walkers. HOT BOX had marked the walkers trail with that much Gypock that there must be a house somewhere missing a wall.

After several checks and false trails, we eventually made it to the Drink stop just behind the walkers and from there a short hop to Home. After a short period to refresh it was time to start your panicking.

There was no POW but sometimes you need not even acknowledge the Erectus, PUSSY LANE made mention of her fondness for it so MAL (not his real hash Name) felt obliged to give it to her.

It was good to see that BOOGER's operation went well and his cataracts have been corrected but I think next time maybe check your arm.

BANGOK praised CUTTLEFISH for showing off his reversing prowess by placing the trailer into the tightest spot within the property boundary.

MOTHER DUCK explained how next week's run was going to start. Raffles where drawn and lost again.

The nosh was a Mexican theme with a wide selection of choices to fill your picky taste buds

Overall, another good night with good food
