RUN REPORT 2331

Swamp led me astray in a vain to attempt to steal bacon from some hardworking firefighters & therefore didn't actually follow trail.

The circle was entertaining & most got a share of the leftover port & lemonade experiment. The rest got yummy Tun or water. After, the pack enjoyed a racing repast of quiches & sausages in bread.

IF HENRY KENDALL WROTE A RUN REPORT
(Based on "Song of the Cattle Hunters")

While the evening light gleams on the Wulguru streams

And the Hashers all bask in its glow.

Up the streets we all fly, with a loud ringing cry,

Down the laneways & gullies we go!

And the chalk marks we hunt & the hash horn's out front

& we roar like the thunder of waves.

As the beat and the beat of our swift Hasher's feet

Start the geckos away from their caves.

As the beat and the beat of our swift Hasher's feet

Start the geckos away from their caves.

Like the wintery shore that the walkers walk o'er

All the park tracks are filling with shoes.

For swiftly we gain on the walkers again

To beat the mob up to the booze.

And we'll follow them hard to rails of the yard

Where the trailer and circle are met.

And the beat and the beat of our swift hashers' feet

Will die the echoes away.

And the beat and the beat of our swift hashers' feet

Will die with the echoes away...

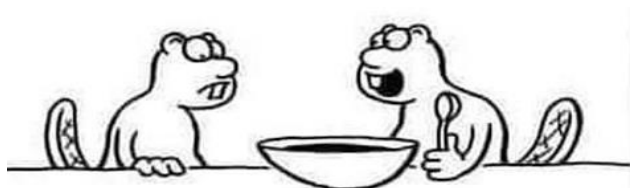

The run report is based on classic horse poem by

Australian/NZ poet Henry Kendall (1841-1882).

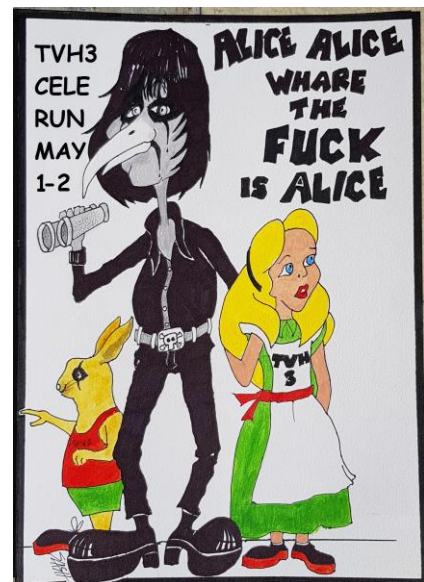

Heard of him? No, I didn't think so.

Skinny little Irish man goes into an elevator, looks up and see this HUGE guy standing next to him.

The big guy sees the little Irish man staring at him, he looks down and says, "7 feet tall, 350 pounds, 20-inch penis, 3 pounds of testicles, Turner Brown."

The little Irish man faints and falls to the floor. The big guy kneels down and brings him to, shaking him.

In a weak voice the little guy says, "What EXACTLY did you say to me?"

The big guy says, "I saw your curious look and figured I'd give you the answers to the questions everyone always asks me... I'm 7 feet tall, I weigh 350 pounds, I have a 20-inch penis, my testicles weigh 3-pounds, and my name is Turner Brown."

The little Irish man says, "Turner Brown?!... Sweet Jesus, I thought you said, "Turn Around!!"
