send to Knicka-Less – BY THURSDAY NIGHT

Run 2397

It was a cold nearly full moon, clear and cloudless night and the pack set off into the wilds of Upper Northern Kirwan Heights around the Bohle River Esplanade

There were the few that couldn't pull themselves away from the fire or the trailer and stayed and listened to TYRE FRUCKS tails and trails of yesteryear. Only 4 runners and nearly a kilometre for each, on those figures we need at least 10 runners make a fairly decent run?

Ran through what was once the Range drive in but is now filled with million dollars houses. Close to but not into brothers leagues club near to but not into the old dairy farmers stadium.

The GM tested the fortitude of the pack to see how long they could endure the cold and ice invade their aging bones and muscles before finally calling the circle to order. The pack huddled into a cold tight little circle to keep warm and keep the cold at bay. Would have been nice to have some ice, to sit on, to warm up the bum it was that cold.

Walkers had a bitch about having to walk a false trail at least you had a trail to follow, I had bitch about the run (nothing New).

The erectus was there with HEMIROID and after much moaning and whingeing was passed along but the POW was absent off seeking warmer digs BOOBs and BUNDY completed 50 runs and CUTTLEFISH has smashed the 900 run

INNER TUBE and TYRE FRUCK had 2 fires going to keep the pack alive and to cook the lovely nosh

The bewitching hour (830pm) was upon us so all the good and bad hashers retired to warmer digs and beds to dream of warmer times, I hate the one week of winter, to bloody cold
