Run Report 2475 – Shatter – Biara St, Cranbrook

RUN/ Post code 2475- Urbenville is a rural village in northern New South Wales, Australia. The village is located in the Tenterfield Shire local government area, 822 kilometres north of the state capital, Sydney, and 150 kilometres southwest of Brisbane. At the 2011 census, Urbenville had a population of 446. Nowhere near Cranbrook.

It was a hot full moon, clear and cloudy night with the chance of rain with the pack setting off into the wilds of Middle Cranbrook around the Ross River Esplanade.

There were the few that couldn't pull themselves away from the trailer and stayed and listened to SHATTER'S tails and trails of yesteryear. Only 5 runners and about 5 walkers completed the Hash trail with the rest of the pack wandering off to do something called Full Moon Hash which used to run separately -- in yester years.

Ran through back streets of Cranbrook following many loops and straights till finally catching up with the walkers at the drink stop. We were tricked into believing the Drink stop was something magical, Magical it was what "Bloody Red Cordial" it was something out of a Hash Horrors Run which I have never done. Then a short gallop home to find some real piss.

The GM had a broken wing so the JM stood in for her and tested the fortitude of the pack to see how long they could endure the heat and see how fast the ice could melt within the trailer. Two hashers decided that they couldn't handle the heat and said bugger this we are off south. So we sent them on their way TOOLSQUEEZER and GASH, we will catch later on future trails.

The erectus was ABSENT and the POW was passed to a Hasher who made his Harriette miss the Pink show.

SHATTER, PINK BITS and G STRING fed the hungry pack alive with some lovely nosh;

The bewitching hour (2030pm) was upon us so all the good and bad hashers retired to warmer digs and beds to dream of cooler times.

ON ON, BND

And now, apologies to Pussy Lane – Last week's Trash was prepared Tuesday morning as On Sec was heading to Mt Larcom – (Post code 4695 – A rural town in the Gladstone Region, 32 km westnorthwest of Gladstone and 543 km nor northwest of Brisbane, Mt Larcom has a population of 332 (2021 census). It is also nowhere near Cranbrook – “So there, B&D!!!!!!”) – So Pussy's run report for Run 2474 missed the cut – So here it is:

Run Report 2474 – Black-n-Decker & Betty Barefoot – Kitchener Rd, Pimlico

This run summarises the details and analysis of Hash Run 2474 hared by B&D and Barefoot Betty at their residence in Pimlico.

B&D our host loves to decorate his house with many bright lights, he is known for his decorating prowess. I ran a total distance of 4.59km with a moving time of 42:03 with an average Pace of 9.09km. The run took in many parks and historical sites of interest in upper Pimlico, while educational it did lack water crossings. I ran with my friend Blow Back, I have known Blow Back for 11 years. He is famous for running a 3 hour marathon (... not quite, Quill) and creating an interesting Home Brew (... definitely, Quill).

Once we returned from the run our host Betty delighted us with Mini Meat Pies which she heated to the temperature of the sun. We laughed merrily as Fellow runners burnt the mucosa from their mouths. $2 beers were imbibed with much enthusiasm.

The GM held circle and much joviality ensued based on a recent cricket Game where the team the GMs supported had won. Fellow runner Teaser won the right to carry an Erectus for the week, the POW insufficient data to elaborate.

Next week's run will be hared by Mr Shatter in Cranbrook. On and On Pussy Lane

Two women were on a bus fighting bitterly over the last available seat.

The conductor had already tried unsuccessfully to intervene when the bus driver shouted to the conductor, “Let the ugly one take the seat.” Both women stood for the rest of the journey.
