Run Report - 2488 - Cuttlefish

17 Gladys St Kelso

Here comes Monday evening at greater Kelso, smaller pack than usual but brave keen hashers turned up to run/trot/walk avoid any incidents of robbery or murdered and the rest were securing the trailer keeping it safe.

Well marked maps were supplied because of the recent pouring down of heavy rain fall, runners made a 5.3km run, trotter did 4.2km, and walkers approximately 3km cruising the suburb. There was an incident that the down down table was collapsed just at the beginning of the circle, however no one has injured. POW was handed to Ewok from Booger who just got back from Tassy after Tay Tay's concert in Melbourne.

Erectus is MIA. Norty Warty was on the ice because his norty behavior from the previous week.

Obviously there was no red ticket in the raffle bucket as we didn't win, but tri colour of black, blue, and orange were picked and Scissors scored the second and third prize as she becoming a popular winner.

Very yummy pasta with sweet chili and veg were served.

Great run, yummy nosh, and a lot of fun in the circle.

Well done Cuttlefish, and good work GM and JM teamwork.

On on to Innbread in Mundingburra next week for everyone, we will be in Church cross the Tasman to check out the other mob on Monday before heading to Interhash in Queenstown.
