RUN REPORT FOR RUN 2569

Hares : SHATTER and BLOW BACK

Early indications were fairly bleak prior to start time with the neighbourhood dogs making more noise than the hashers.

That was until HERCULES and SCISSORS turned up, and so did the calamity.

SHATTER greeted his guests with aplomb (not a plum) and finally sent the energetic packs off into the Aitkenvale wilderness following a well-marked trail for runners and walkers and twatters.

The trail took the runners through one of the origins of sport in Townsville, Illich Park, and then meandered through the tailored backstreets toward the Ross River and then wound its weary way back to the SHATTER mansion.

Here, thanks to all the trailer trash, we found the beer still cold and the atmosphere quite balmy.

There was no GM to put on free or subsidised drinks so most folk had to fight the moths and use their hard-earned and well-hidden coffers. Good result for the trailer.

After many squirts the JM HERCULES took control and called the circle.

Sad news delivered with G-STRING'S dad passing away and acknowledged with a toast and condolences.

There was a no-show by BOT BOT whose dearest has disappeared seeking asylum at the Chinese embassy in Weipa for deeds done the week before.

Everyone was pleased to see and meet NEX WEEK'S visiting partner CAMILLE. Hope she turns up again!

The rafflers SC and KNICKA-LESS cleaned most of us out, but there were popular winners in BALLSY (to subsidise his trip to Birdsville). SELF-ABUSE (for his travels in his new van) and SERENITY (to caress his blonde).

SERENITY was that lucky that he also won the prize of scribe for SHATTER'S run.

SHOCKER was again outstanding in his choice of down down songs, followed closely by CAPTAIN (how do they remember all that shit).

Nosh was then served with delights of pickled dead pig and dessicated cabbage and fresh dough.

Most went up for more, with their bellies full and the beers starting to bloat, the pack slowly dissipated into the still balmy night and onto the safety of their abodes, wondering what next week's run will bring.

So, ON ON to SELF-ABUSE and PICK-UP'S for another enjoyable hash Monday night.

Well done hares.
